

Webinar

“Blockchain-based solutions for climate policy in Latin America”

Thursday, October 4th, 2018

08:30 to 11:30 CDT and 15:30-18:30 CET

The projects “Preparation of an Emissions Trading System in Mexico” and “Mexican-German Climate Change Alliance” in collaboration with GIZ offices in Costa Rica and Brazil are pleased to invite you to participate in a webinar to disseminate the results of a study on the potentials of blockchain for climate change policies. For more details see the webinar’s agenda on page 2.

The objectives of the webinar are:

- (1) to explore Blockchain’s potentials for climate policy instruments such as carbon markets, MRV systems and value chains
- (2) to facilitate dialogue between experts and the interested public.
- (3) to familiarize the interested public with the topic

The webinar will take place on Thursday, October 4th at 8:30-11:30 CDT (15:30-18:30 CET). It is the first in a series of two webinars about blockchain and climate change.
